

Petaluma Educator Named New Superintendent

48 Apply For Local Position

Dr. Dwight Twist, superintendent of schools in Petaluma, California, last night was hired by the Palm Springs Board of Education as the new superintendent of schools here.

Dr. Twist, 44-years-old has been superintendent in Petaluma since 1952.

THE NEW SUPERINTENDENT was hired at a salary of $16,800 a year with a yearly increment of $800, for a four year contract. At the end of his four year contract he will have an annual salary of $19,200, or an average salary for four years of $18,000 a year.

Dr. Wallace R. Muelder had an annual salary of $19,500 a year, annual salary has been a controversial issue during his entire three years as superintendent.

EARLIER THIS YEAR Dr. Muelder gave the Board of Education his resignation effective Aug. 31, and has accepted a job at the University of Southern California.

Dr. Twist's employment in this district will start on Sept. 1. According to Board Chairman Fred Morrison he "may come into the district earlier to work with Dr. Muelder," and Dr. Twist said that he will start "about the first of July."

MORRISON SAID that the school district received 48 applicants for the job, and two long distance calls expressed interest, one from London, England, and the other from The Hague. There was only one applicant from Palm Springs, Warren Linville, principal of Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School.

Dr. Twist's experience ranges from teaching in a one-room school house to superintendent of a major school district.

HE WAS EDUCATED in Redlands High School, after which he attended San Bernardino College and later received a Bachelor of Arts Degree with honors in history from the University of Redlands in 1937. He did graduate work at the University of California at Berkeley—receiving his Master's Degree there in Modern European History in 1938, and a so completed his course requirements for a Ph. D.

He attended the University of Southern California for one semester in 1943 and completed the remainder of his work for a doctorate at the University of California at Berkeley.

DR. TWIST IS currently a member of the Board of Governors of the California Association of School Administrators and holds the important post of chairman of the Legislation Committee for the association. He represents the California Teachers Association and is currently chairman of the Joint Committee on Personnel Procedures which California Teachers Association carries on with the California School Boards Association.

He was a member of the Resolutions Committee of the American Association of School Administrators in 1957. Dr. Twist is also a member of the Board of Managers of the California Congress of Teachers and serves also as chairman of its men's membership committee.

HIS PROFESSIONAL connections include being president of the Secondary Schools Association, Bay Section, and is past president of the Bay area curriculum council and is a charter president of Alpha Omega Field Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa.

Dr. Twist has a wife, Marjorie, and two children, Barbara, who is in her first term at Mills College, and a son, Charles Russell, in the eighth grade.

His family will remain in Petaluma until their home there is sold and until they have acquired a home in Palm Springs. He does not expect his family to join him here until the end of summer.

New Super Skyway to Be Created Soon

Designed as First Step Toward Safety Control

NEW YORK (UPI)—A member of the Civil Aeronautics Board said today a transcontinental super skyway will be created soon as the first step toward blanket safety control of all planes in the air.

In Washington, it was learned that officials hope the 40-mile-wide skyway will be operative in July.

ONE TENTATIVE plan is for it to be forked at both ends, with eastern terminals at New York and Washington, and western ends at San Francisco and Los Angeles.

The CAB member, G. Joseph Minetti, said the skyway will extend from 18,000 to 35,000 feet altitude. Within this air corridor no aircraft "will be permitted to fly without positive control from the ground," Minetti said.

"EACH PILOT flying this super skyway will be constantly monitored en route and advised of all other aircraft placed ahead of him, behind him, above, below or beside him" even in clear weather, Minetti said.

Minetti discussed the skyway in remarks prepared for ceremonies dedicating a new kind of helicopter for use by New York Airways in its metropolitan area service.

THE CAB MEMBER said the skyway is a needed first step. Extension of maximum safety control to all aircraft over Continental United States is, he said, still five years away.

"As these super skyways crisscross our air space the possibility of collision will diminish rapidly," Minetti said.

In these corridors all planes, including military, will be obliged to take directions from air traffic controllers on the ground.

The CAB has not yet given final approval to the initial skyway plan but it is expected to do so.

WEATHER

Desert area forecast: Sunny and continued warm today and Wednesday. High today 90-100 upper valleys, 100-110 lower valleys.

Yesterday's high was 107; low 63.

DEDICATION OF THE NEW North Palm Springs Fire Control Station was held Sunday with hundreds of Desert Area residents taking part. A buffet lunch was served by North Palm Springs women, and soft drinks were sold by the Boy Scout Troop. The new station is located one block west of Indian Avenue on Dillon Road. Completion of the station completes plans for area control fire stations planned more than eight years ago. The sign, painted at the time the station was originally planned, was erected after it had been stored in a California Division of Forestry warehouse eight years ago. Pictured by the new fire station above, left to right, back row, C. C. Covey, Bill Yeager, Myron Seeley, Tom Pendergast, Jim Rogers, Frank Schlatter, Capt. A. H. Western Sets Target Date to Resume Service

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Target date for resumption of service in 13 western states, Canada and Mexico by Western Air Lines has been set by company officials at next mid-week.

Negotiations between the airline and representatives of the Air Line Pilots Assn. continued today under a truce that permitted Western's 263 pilots to return to the jobs they struck Feb. 21.

Under the agreement, proposed by Federal Mediator Leverett Edwards and accepted by both sides, talks would continue for five days in an effort to resolve contract differences.

At the end of that time all unsettled points would be submitted to arbitration.

CVAPC Continues Drive For Highway 111 Expansion

Proponents of Highway 111 expansion today weighed the strength of the first official "negative" response to plans for creation of a four-lane desert "Main Street" from Palm Springs to Indio.

The respondent in this case is State Director of Public Works C. M. Gillis, who outlined official policies that might bar the way for paving of a four-lane, undivided scenic Highway 111 route.

GILLIS' VIEWS were aired in the form of a letter sent to Assemblyman Lee Backstrand. The letter was read at last night's meeting of the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee, which is leading a campaign to broaden the desert thoroughfare.

Reporting on a recent discussion with members of the State Highway Commission, Gillis cited commission policy stating that interim improvements are not made until "the location of the freeway which replaces the existing road is determined."

"Certainly, consideration should not be given to extending a highway to four lanes unless a dividing strip is contemplated," Gillis stated.

FREEWAY ROUTING has been a constant stumbling block to expansion proponents who are opposed to a Highway 111 freeway routing and hope to convince the highway commissioners that little need exists for a second desert area freeway.

A special CVAPC delegation, supported by Backstrand, is scheduled to meet with commissioners June 26 to request immediate action for construction of an unlimited access highway.

RESPONDING TO THE Gillis letter, Backstrand told the CVAPC that "you must know that to build a four-lane 'Main Street' is a complete departure from anything that has been done in the past 10 years."

"But," Backstrand added, "you have an absolutely unique situation here."

The Assemblyman referred to the resort nature of the area and the "extremely high" property values extending in a 30-mile strip from Palm Springs to Indio.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS and Backstrand agree that facts on the high evaluation and the resort atmosphere of the area might convince the commission that heavy traffic invited by a divided, freeway-type pavement would prove detrimental to the entire area.

The Gillis letter, it was noted, also mentioned a traffic survey being conducted to "clearly show what the nature and extent of the improvements will be."

INDIAN CANYONS TO BE CLOSED AT 5 P.M., SUNDAY

Agua Caliente Band of Mission Indians will close its famed canyons, Palm, Andreas and Murray, to the public at 5 p.m., Sunday, for the summer.

Tentative opening date next fall is Oct. 15.

The canyons are closed annually to permit clean-up and repair of facilities, together with the usual high fire hazard during the summer months in the canyon areas.

DHS Woman Is Victim of Ramon-99 Crash

Virginia Witt, 65-year-old Desert Hot Springs bakery shop operator and former Palm Springs bakery owner, was fatally injured Sunday night in an automobile accident at Ramon Road and Highway 60-70-90, near Thousand Palms.

Her husband, Gus Witt, 68, was hospitalized at Desert Hospital with fractured ribs and arm, and multiple lacerations. He is listed as "critical" by the hospital.

ACCORDING TO THE California Highway Patrol, Mr. and Mrs. Witt had stopped at the stop sign on Ramon Road, and then moved out into the intersection. The Witt car was struck by one driven by Marine Lt. Samuel R. Mariti, 24, of Oxnard Marine Base.

Lt. Mariti was hospitalized with head injuries and lacerations, and will be transferred to his base hospital and kept under observation for a few days. He is attached to the 437th Fighter Interceptor Squadron.

Funeral services for Mrs. Witt are pending at Wiefels and Son Mortuary, Palm Springs.

Announces Plans After Conference

Believed to Have Full Approval of Premier, President

PARIS (UPI)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle announced dramatically today that he was preparing to take over the constitutional government of France.

He acted with the apparent full approval of Premier Pierre Pflimlin and President Rene Coty to save the nation from civil war.

HE APPEALED to the nation to remain calm and said he would contact immediately the pro-De Gaulle ruling generals in Algeria in whom "I express my confidence."

De Gaulle's announcement came from his Paris headquarters after a secret hour-long conference with a representative of Pflimlin's crumbling government.

BUT EVEN BEFORE the announcement, the Communists, bitter foes of De Gaulle, acted.

The Communist-led General Confederation of Labor called off railroad workers at noon (4 a.m. p.d.t.) and demanded a general strike across the nation two hours later.

The strike fizzled before it started. It produced only momentary delays on electric lines and subways were unaffected.

THE COMMUNISTS then switched their tactics. They called on "the workers and all republicans of Paris and all the parisian area" to demonstrate Wednesday afternoon near the Bastille Square, where France's 1789 revolution started.

There were predictions that de Gaulle, hero of French wartime resistance and the first provisional president of Free France before the founding of the Fourth Republic, would be back in power in a matter of days or even hours.

DESPITE OFFICIAL denials, there were persistent reports that it was with Pflimlin himself that De Gaulle conferred during the night.

Pflimlin conferred with Coty at the Presidential Palace this morning.

He emerged pale and drawn but remained silent on the apparently irresistible rise of De Gaulle.

But even with the sanction of Coty and the crumbling government of Pflimlin, the rise of De Gaulle still faced its difficulties.

Used TV Technique

Mother Saves Daughter's Life

A television program and a quick-thinking mother were today credited with saving the life of an 18-month-old girl who tumbled into a swimming pool here Sunday.

Fire department officials said that Mr. and Mrs. John Martin and their infant daughter, Suzanne, were watching television in the living room at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hall, of 401 Via Colusa.

Suzanne apparently toddled from the room and wandered unnoticed through a door leading to the pool. Her parents noted her absence a moment later and raced to the back yard.

Mrs. Hall spotted the tot floating face down about a foot below the surface of the pool. She hoisted the unconscious youngster to the bank and Mrs. Martin immediately administered artificial respiration.

Suzanne's father explained that Mrs. Martin had viewed a television program on first aid and artificial respiration last week.

A fire department resuscitator squad arrived on the scene a few minutes later, but they weren't needed. Mrs. Martin had passed her first aid course and Suzanne was fully recovered.

Rumwell Defends 'Off-Limits' Policy of Education Board

"I can say nothing," said Arnold Rumwell, member of the Board of Education, "concerning the new 'off-limits' policy of the board, but to ask the people of Palm Springs to study it or ask about it. If they do, I know they will understand the intent and purpose of the action taken by the Board at its meeting last week."

Rumwell, who said that he had received "many telephone calls concerning the policy, explained "the board of education has always had a policy concerning the holding of school activities in places that sell alcoholic beverages, tobacco and narcotics. The only change in the policy was the placing of responsibility if this policy is not carried out."

"I WOULD HAVE been something to talk about, indeed, if we were to have omitted from our policy the word narcotics," said the elected official.

Some people have charged the members of the Board of Education of "not knowing what they were doing" when they adopted the emergency policy at their last meeting, and to this Rumwell said that the Board "had read the policy carefully, had discussed it in full, and were positive of its meaning before we adopted it."

THE FACT THAT the policy was adopted by the Board of Education "within just a few days of two big local events held in Palm Springs nightclubs" was "very unfortunate" for it may have inferred by innuendo that there was something wrong with the recent meeting. "I was not told, nor were any members of the board of Education told, so far as I know, that any particular episode led to the action taken," said Rumwell.

The policy, as adopted by the Board of Education last Thursday night, simply "restates an old policy and adds the fixing of responsibility on teachers of the district for the conduct of school children in their care outside the school grounds. This is something which is very important," said Rumwell, "and does not reflect on policing of local establishments by the local police department or by the managements of the nightclubs."

Rayburn Acts

Democrats Back Ike on Tax Cuts

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House Democratic leadership today announced its support for President Eisenhower's stand against tax cuts.

At the same time Republican legislative leaders predicted a "substantial majority" if the House and Senate would go along with the chief executive's plea to hold the line on taxes this year.

SPEAKER SAM Rayburn (D-Tex.) called on Congress to grant the President's plea of Monday for extension of present corporation and excise taxes without tax-cutting amendments.

Rayburn predicted the bill would pass the House without amendments within the next week or two. But he wouldn't predict what would happen in the Senate, where there is strong sentiment for tax-cutting amendments.

DESPITE THE stand taken by the President and Rayburn, Congress appeared to be in a mood to cut some excise taxes.

Rayburn went even further than the administration which had left open the door for a possible tax cut later in the year if the recession gets worse.

But formally and officially the leadership of both parties was behind the President.

SENATE REPUBLICAN leader William F. Knowland said after the weekly legislative conference of GOP leaders with the President that:

"Based on the facts now available, there is not likely to be any tax reduction legislation in this session of Congress."

Knowland said that on the basis of a report from Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson there can be no anti-recession tax cutting now because of the "widening budget deficit."

RAYBURN SAID at a news conference that he is opposed to any tax cuts for the rest of this session of Congress.

When asked whether he would hold to this position even if the business slump got worse, Rayburn said he never had felt tax reduction was the way to combat recession.

Youth, First Snake Bite Victim, on Way to Recovery

Seven-year-old Bobby Morrow, who claims the unhappy distinction of being the season's first snakebite victim, is today recovering from the effects of a rattlesnake bite.

Bobby, of 31-047 San Luis Rey, was bitten on the right toe while he was playing in a desert wash near his Country Club Estates home.

Desert Hospital officials said Bobby is well on the road to recovery after two injections of anti-venom. Doctors also had to remove snake fangs imbedded in the youngsters toe.

Residents in desert areas were cautioned against letting their children play in sandy washes and stream beds, favorite camping grounds for the poisonous reptiles, during the current "rattlesnake season."

"MISS PALM SPRINGS—U.S.A." a new song written especially for the Miss Palm Springs Contest, has been completed and is ready for orchestration and will be heard for the first time by the public in the Chi Chi Starlite Room Thursday night. Written by Ted Grouya, center, and Martin Beck, right, it expresses the feeling of the Miss Palm Springs Contest, which takes a local girl from life in the Village to the glitter of the Miss California Contest, and perhaps even on to the fabulous Miss United States and Miss Universe Contest in Long Beach. Over the Memorial Day weekend, beginning May 30, the California Tip Toppers Club of Los Angeles will host a three-day weekend at the Rossmore Hotel in Palm Springs for members of all Tall Clubs in California and Arizona.

Reservations numbering 104 have been received from clubs in Sacramento, San Francisco, Phoenix, San Diego, Long Beach and Los Angeles.

The purpose of this weekend is to relax in the sun, swim, dance and to attempt to "start the ball rolling" to have the nationwide convention of the American Affiliation of Tall Clubs in Los Angeles in July of 1959.

All of the Tall Clubs are purely social in nature, scheduling dances, parties, meetings and issuing club papers. The minimum height requirements in stocking feet are 6 feet 2 inches for men and 5 feet 10 inches for women.

There are 29 member clubs in American Affiliation of Tall Clubs and the yearly convention attendance has been averaging more than 300 people.

Archbishop Stritch Dies Clutching Image of Christ

ROME (UPI) — Archbishop Samuel Cardinal Stritch of Chicago, stricken at the moment of his greatest honor in the Roman Catholic Church, died peacefully early today clutching an image of the crucified Christ he loved.

The 70-year-old Cardinal, first American-born priest ever summoned to Rome to become a member of the Church's governing Curia, apparently knew when the final moment had come.

HE RAISED THE crucifix in his left hand, blessed those around his bedside with it and then died. His right arm was amputated a month ago.

"He surely taught us how to die," said Msgr. James C. Hardiman, the Cardinal's secretary.

Pope Pius XII learned about the death while working in his studio. Vatican sources said he was "most affected" and retired to his private chapel to pray for the Cardinal.

A CHURCH SPOKESMAN said the Cardinal's funeral would be held in the Church of St. Ignatius Thursday morning.

P. S. by D. K.

It's been a long time since I saw an "Off-Limits" sign, or heard such an order.

Thought that I had left all that behind when I left the great institution known as the Army, and returned to civilian life again.

But I was wrong. Now comes another edict—this time not issued to me though—but to members of various school groups, organizations and clubs, ordering them to stay away from places that dispense "cigarettes, liquor or narcotics."

IT'S PROBABLY a good thing to get the youth of today in training for an Army tour of duty, for most of them will be doing so. But why do in a town like Palm Springs where we have excellent police supervision and protection, and where leading night clubs operate under even a stricter code than the law requires.

There's a penalty in the new policy regulation adopted by the Board of Education too, upon recommendation of Schools Supt. Wallace Mueller. It provides for suspension, or even dismissal of any teacher who takes a group, an organization or a club, to a place where the above mentioned things are sold.

I DIDN'T SEE anything about a penalty for the High School students, but I imagine that they could always be suspended under general regulations.

Another thing I can't understand is why the great leadership of our teachers would not be strong enough to keep the children under their care from indulging in one of the three "vices" named, even if our night clubs were not so overly strict themselves.

If the teachers are not of such moral character, perhaps they should be replaced immediately, instead of just being placed under an "Off-Limits" regulation.

THEN, TOO, IF Dr. Mueller and the Board of Education know of any place in town where narcotics are dispensed (outside of drug stores legally by prescription), then they should contact the local Police Department, and if that doesn't produce results (as the "Off-Limits" order so implies), then it should be taken before the Riverside County Grand Jury.

Record Traffic Flow Requires More Care-CHP

California highways will carry another record flow of traffic this summer, says the California Highway Patrol.

"Motorists in California can expect to cope with the greatest volume of traffic in history on our streets and highways during the next few months," declared Patrol Capt. L. W. Watson, commander of the Indio area office of the Patrol.

"NEW RECORD highs in motor vehicle registration will increase the traffic flow and require stricter adherence to the traffic rules if safety is to be attained.

"Drive within the posted speed limits, but never faster than is reasonable and prudent for existing conditions; drive in the right hand lane; be extra courteous at crossroads; and move with the flow of traffic," the captain stated.

"PATROLMEN ASSIGNED to this area will be on the highways as usual, paying special attention to the more predominant accident-causing violations.

"The Patrol asks every driver and pedestrian to cooperate by being constantly alert to the increased hazards of heavy traffic," he concluded. "Driving safely this summer will require positive and persistent obedience to all traffic rules and regulations."

N.Y. Dogs

SYRACUSE, N.Y. — (UP) — Upstate New York residents spent about $2,000,000 during 1957 to license a record 786,965 canines, according to the State Department of Agriculture and Markets. The figure, which includes 128 seeing eye and K-9 Corps "war veterans" eligible to receive free licenses, represents an increase of 32,984 over the previous year. The statistics exclude New York City, which operates its own licensing facilities.

Advice on Steps

AMES, Iowa — (UP) — Uneven steps and steps that are out of proportion are the leading reasons for falls in the home, according to Norval Wardle, extension safety specialist at Iowa State College. A prime rule for safe stairways is to have a clear walkway the full length of each tread, Wardle said. Stairways of more than three steps need handrails.

Frequent Visitor Writes New Book

A book by Dr. Leon Patrick, a frequent visitor to the desert, entitled "How to Eat Well and Live Longer," has just been released.

Dr. Patrick, a medical doctor, who resided in La Jolla, maintains that a person can change his eating habits and live longer. In spite of the vast knowledge harvest of the past decade, with its emphasis on the human body and nutrition, thousands of otherwise intelligent people are destined for an early grave unless they learn how to eat, remarks Dr. Patrick.

There are three simple dietary rules to follow, he says, chew properly, avoid overeating and select the right combinations of foods. He warns against eating when worried or physically distressed from a previous meal.

With both text and charts, Dr. Patrick gives a comprehensive picture of what foods should and should not be combined to assure maximum efficiency of digestion and consequent good health.

Lucid, straight forward, witty and information packed, the book may be seen at the Palm Springs Book Store, 120 South Palm Canyon Drive.

New Off Limits Policy Was Not Warranted

A new policy has been adopted by our Board of Education which bars all student activities, "in places where alcohol, tobacco or narcotics are served."

On first thought this is very gratifying. Our Board of Education is to be congratulated. We must see to it that our younger generation must not face the temptation of liquor, tobacco or narcotics.

Sincere as Dr. Mueller and the board members may be, they have refused to face realities. In the first place narcotics are not served in the places to which Dr. Mueller refers. Also, in these places liquor is not served to those who are not of the legal age. So far as cigarettes are concerned, where can you hold any activity, high school or otherwise, where they cannot be purchased?

This whole matter was predicated upon a school gathering in a reputable business institution in the Village, which for years has offered its facilities to school groups to see a top show and have soft drinks "on the house." No tobacco, liquor or narcotics — was sold or tolerated. A clean, talented show—with "Cokes" was the only inducement.

This has been going on for years. Nothing has been said of it before and the sponsor has done it in good faith because he feels he is doing something good for the youth coming into adulthood.

The sponsor of this annual event is one of our most highly respected citizens and businessmen, who has done much for the welfare of Palm Springs. Furthermore, the establishment's standards have been above reproach.

If this resolution of the School Board continues in effect, "where can any school activity be held?" While every restaurant doesn't sell liquor, it is safe to say that they sell cigarettes.

Why was the term "narcotics" brought up in the same resolution? This is a direct affront to the community. We think local business men are as much against narcotics as the school administrators.

Judging from the resolution just passed by the Board of Education and sponsored by our "lame duck" superintendent, we think that it is time that school district residents take a more active interest in school policy, and also think seriously of a "housecleaning" of our "rubber-stamp" board.

On the March

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Arms and the Man... American Troops and the American President... Little Rock... Puerto Rico... Lebanon... Metropolitan France... What Does Mr. Eisenhower Think Concerning his Constitutional Duties as Military Commander-in-Chief?

Perhaps it was wrong to put this thought in the form of a question. If so, I blame it on some of the President's spokesmen. They have given the impression, in official testimony, as well as in informal conversation, that the military authority lodged in the White House is vague and limitless.

IT IS CLAIMED that the President's power to deploy troops can be applied to any assortment of annoyances which might beset the Federal courts, the State Department and the Vice President.

But there is no authority for the notion that the Chief Executive can use his power without restraint. Alexander Hamilton had a lot to say about all this in Federalist Papers, 68 through 76.

"Energy in the Executive is a leading characteristic in the definition of good government. It is essential to the protection of the community..." wrote Hamilton.

BUT HE WENT ON to point out that the title "Commander in Chief" over the armed forces is, in fact, a narrow and limited job description. To make, a point Hamilton compared, or rather contrasted, the office of President with that of a British King.

"The one (the President)," wrote Hamilton, in part, "would have the right to command the military and naval forces of the nation; the other (the King), in addition to this right, possesses that of declaring war, and of raising and regarding fleets and armies by his own authority."

THE PRESIDENT, to be frank about it, has already used troops in manners that displease his best friend and severest critic, the U. S. Senate. A question was recently raised in a press conference about the stalled confirmation of W. W. White to be Assistant Attorney General for civil rights.

Mr. White is the Philadelphia lawyer who found "authority" for dispatching paratroopers to Little Rock to support a Federal Court order. The southern Senators, of course, are against White; but so are many western liberals of both parties and, I suspect, quite a few Senator-lawyers who are students of the Constitution.

THEN, THERE IS the matter of deploying Marines and paratroopers in Puerto Rico during the recent withdrawal of Vice President Nixon from his South American "good will" tour. The President's forceful action appealed to some of us, but the Senate is still warring its collective head in doubt and in some disapproval.

Senator Mike Mansfield, the brains of the Foreign Relations committee, tells me that it was a slur and a usurpation upon the Puerto Rican National Guard. This unit was amply supported by Federal re-enforcements in Puerto Rico, Cuba and the Panama Canal Zone.

THE STATEMENT that we were anticipating a call for help by the Venezuelan government is not widely accepted on Capitol Hill, for if the State Department or the Central Intelligence Agency gets to "anticipating" or "mind reading" the intent of friendly governments, we are stretching the American Constitution past all elasticity.

Senator Mansfield is approximately half way through an enlightened critique of our foreign policies. He began the five-part series in the Senate on May 16 and will finish on June 1 at Billings, Montana, in a commencement address. The Mansfield speeches are well worth following.

They come from a thoughtful, informed Democrat who can question the Administration's policies without attempting to pitch any political hay, or to seek headlines in sensationalism.

LOOKING PAST Little Rock and Puerto Rico, we see the possibility that Mr. Eisenhower will have other chances to use troops. So far, the Eisenhower doctrine has not been invoked. But all over the Middle East and throughout bleeding North Africa, American persons and property are in jeopardy.

No shadow of doubt falls upon the President's duty to protect our people and their belongings. If this means landing Marine and paratroops, he must act boldly and with strength. To do otherwise would invite imitations of what has already happened to American prisoners in Red China and North Korea.

THERE IS AN alternative, however, if it works fast. The dispatch of United Nations troops from smaller nations was very effective in the Suez War of 1956. But the President should not, and presumably will not, hesitate to use our own forces in our own interests.

And what about metropolitan France? We are now grotesquely entangled in the NATO and other treaties. It is common knowledge in Washington that the five American divisions in West Europe are there for two purposes, one well advertised; the other clandestine.

OF COURSE OUR troops will act to repel a Russian invasion from the east. But will they also act to maintain the integrity of NATO; that is, to uphold the status quo government of France?

If the answer is affirmative, then I would expect the grave of Hamilton in Trinity Churchyard, Manhattan, and that of George Washington at Mount Vernon, to fly open in protest. We have already, in this mid-century decade, used American draftsmen to help Koreans vs. Koreans. But if it comes to re-entering the womb of Europe by assisting Frenchmen vs. Frenchmen, I would expect living Americans—especially those in the Senate—to say that the use of troops has gone too far.

HOLMES ALEXANDER

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: I have a bone-headed sister-in-law who thinks she knows it all. Her little girl is almost four years old and she still drinks milk out of a bottle and nipple. Even the minister's wife told her that she was doing the wrong thing. This sister-in-law says that she doesn't care what anybody says, it won't do the child any harm and she would rather have her drink milk out of a bottle and nipple than not at all. What is your opinion?

GIVING UP
DEAR GIVING: Suggest that your sister-in-law ask her family doctor for his professional opinion. He has news for her.

(She has to) as soon as I finish the hem on her dress. The wedding party plans to go to a hall for a wedding dance right after the ceremony. I don't feel much like dancing. Is it my duty to go to the wedding dance? Could I go to the dance and sit? This husband wasn't my daughter's real father so she can dance, can't she? Please steer me right.

IN MOURNING
DEAR IN: A wife in mourning should not go to a wedding dance. If your daughter feels like dancing, let her dance, but it seems to me a stepfather should rate more respect than he is being shown.

DEAR ABBY: We are two High School girls who have nothing but time on our hands. Can you give us the names of some boys in the Service who are lonely and would enjoy corresponding with a couple of cute pen pals? Thanks

TWO BORED GIRLS
DEAR GIRLS: Surely you must have a friend or relative in the service (or in a hospital sanitarium) who would appreciate hearing news of mutual friends. REAL charity begins at home, girls.

CONFIDENTIAL TO BROKEN-HEARTED: What did you expect from a married man? Any man who will cheat on his wife and lie to HER, will cheat on his girlfriend and lie to her also. Sorry, look for sympathy under "S" in the dictionary.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

THIS SIDE of The Sun By Phat

And now to check some notes unheeded. But kept in case they should be needed.

Tuesday's compositions are generally written over the weekend which, in my book, means two days of nothing much to do.

THEREFORE IT is a period when the backs of all those envelopes, cash register receipts, margins of parking tickets and other scraps of paper, can be scanned to see what has been left unsaid during the week.

I save all of these little scraps of paper because you never can tell when they'll come in handy.

In fact, I hate to throw anything away.

This can lead to marital discord like the other day when Mrs. G. insisted on throwing away an accumulation of 1954 railroad time-tables.

"What are you saving them for?" she asked.

She had me there.

ANYWAY, there was one bit of paper on which was written: "RIF" and something that looked like "Pomona tangerine."

Well, that was easy. I remember that Race Horse Harrison, that well known man about Palm Canyon Drive, had chided me for saying that a Pekingese had adopted him.

"Don't you know the difference between a Pekingese and a Pomeranian?" he scolded.

"This is a Pomeranian."

The next time I hope he gets a bulldog. That I can spell right off the bat.

AND THEN there was that "HUBB" scribble. That threw me for a while.

Then I remembered that I had intended to make some comment on the utility of billboard advertising.

That's because of the signs along Highway 99 which herald: "Hotel So-and-So, Palm Springs, New."

It isn't always so. Palm Springs is building so fast that by the time one hotel, just finished, gets up its billboard designating it as "Palm Springs Newest," three more have been completed and are newer.

WHERE CAN YOU BUY an American Flag in Palm Springs? That is the question of Mrs. Antoinette Romatko.

You can buy little miniature flags, she said, but no place could she find a large flag, suitable for displaying in front of the home.

Mrs. Romatko was trying to purchase a fair-sized flag for display Friday, Memorial Day, but so far has been unsuccessful.

WHICH REMINDS ME, this Memorial Holiday weekend we will have the first of three three-day weekends during 1958.

The others are July 4, also a Friday, and the Labor Day weekend.

The way such things go, 1958 may be a worse year than 1957 in traffic deaths. Last year, the highway toll was almost 40,000 but there was only one three-day weekend.

So start planning now to be careful when on that holiday trip this weekend.

All the maids at my Japanese hotel came up to help me pack. When I pack, it is a great opportunity to gander my personal effects — they flip for the pocket tape recorder.

This is the day we give each other goodbye presents. Sayonara gifts.

THE GIFTS ARE beautifully wrapped. They have a little colored paper fan pasted on the outside. A gift marking. The maids are doing a little sniffing. It is polite to show a little sadness at parting. Also kind of fun.

My sayonara gift to my maid is a blue-and-white Pan American Airways flight bag. Pan American gave me one with my berth reservation to Hong Kong.

"YOU NO OPEN until we say sayonara." That is what I tell the maid.

It is not polite in Japan to open presents in front of the giver. But she knows by the size what is in the package. In fact, that is what she asked for.

A PAA bag gives her tremendous face. Big prestige.

IT SHOWS WHEN she walks down the street that she is a traveled woman.

If PAA does not GIVE you a bag, you can walk into one of their offices and buy one for a dollar.

Apparently the Japanese do not know this. Because PAA bags are sold on the back streets for $2. Among the American toothpaste and other items black-marketed by American soldiers with access to the PX.

THE BAG WITH its overseas travel implications gives so much face that it is even counterfeited.

A great shipment of them went on the market at cut-rates recently — they say they were made on the Chinese mainland and smuggled by fishing boats.

The odd thing about these bags is they resemble Pan American bags in color, shape and material. But the side with the wings said "PPAA". Nobody knows why the maker decided on the extra "P". Maybe like a newspaper headline writer: It fit the space more exactly.

WE ALSO HAVE a big sayonara at the airport. All our Japanese friends are down to see us off. So are the friends of friends. And the friends and friends of friends of other passengers.

This tends to fill Haneda airport pretty full.

When Japanese say hello or goodbye, they bow very low. Many times.

WHEN YOU GET a great many people back to back, all bowing, they bump.

It is very difficult. I feel very foolish when I bow and bump the person in back of me who is also bowing. But nobody else seemed to mind.

In a small bowing country, you must get used to a few bumps. If we were all equipped with chrome and tail fins, the cost would be disastrous.

PLANES FROM TOKYO to Hong Kong take off at night.

For you can only make the Hong Kong airport landing during daylight hours.

We took off down the golden strip of runway lights, the big DC-6 climbing over Tokyo Bay with the little ship lights below.

There was champagne and American cigarettes.

AND AFTER AWHILE, they shut down the cabin lights and we all climbed into our berths.

And when the sun was up on the blue South China sea, we had ham and eggs and real American coffee. And slid down along the green islands of the harbor with the big slat - sail fishing junks below us.

Over the crowded streets of Kowloon and alongside the Nine Dragon Hills. Onto the steamy, tropical strip at Kai-tak airport.

Betty Hutton Says a Prayer

NEW YORK — Betty Hutton—recently was baptized a Lutheran and now in a Hollywood church choir is saying a little prayer in her Broadway dressingroom these nights at Lou Walters' lush new Cafe de Paris which features striptease Sherry Britton swimming naked.

"You don't have to be a square to be religious—I'm havin' a ball!" Betty exclaimed to me. "I told my minister I thought you had to be sitting around looking sad and he said, 'Oh, no, Betty, it's a ball!'"

Betty says she prays conversationally.

"When I go on stage I speak to God. I say, 'You're on now, it's up to you!' I get goose bumps thinking of it."

"Sure, I think about it all the time. You can't just go to church Sundays and sleep through the sermon. At one of the choir meetings I sang jazz. Brought the house down! They tell jokes, too. You know there are some clean jokes—I found out, lately."

Betty now reads the Bible daily and has her minister reading "The Hollywood Reporter" and "Variety." She says her pastor has told her, "Betty, I'm beginning to dig your conversation."

Jane Wyman gave a birthday party for Mrs. Dave Chasen at Chez Vito—and told how bored she got being photographed on a trip to Europe. At the Rome airport she was really tired of it but fixed her face and went out to pose for the many photos. They greeted her warmly—but rushed right past her to take pictures of a family of 16 all flying to Africa.

She'll portray a millionaire's secretary. Should have dignity and be kinda Jean Harlowish," says Joe.

And Universal asked me if there are any Wilson Girls who are "young Linda Darnells"—16 to 18, brunette, brown-eyed, olive-skinned, with acting ability, to test for "Imitation of Life." Contact Universal's Ross Hunter in Hollywood, or Phil Gerard in N.Y.

Red-headed Wilson Gal Nora Haydon of Hollywood, in town to make a big TV deal, met Joe DiMaggio and Gentleman George Solotarev the other day. "You belong on television," George said. "I can tell a vision when I see one."

Sid Caesar's TV replacement "The Baseball Corner," originating in Chicago, crossroads of the game now and only city with two major league clubs, will have Frank Frisch as its first guest June 1... "The American Wild West and Rodeo Show," featuring Casey Tibbs, champion cowboy, leaves L.A. soon to appear in Brussels near the fair. Buffalo and Indians will be in the mass movement — also Geo. MIKE CONNOLLY: Rusty Relates Reasons

HOLLYWOOD — Pvt. Rusty Tamblin went "over the hill" from Fort Ord, Calif., to visit his girl friend Barbara Luna here in Hollywood. His Sergeant punished him by assigning him to guard duty — indefinitely!

Rusty's reasons for going AWOL: one, he had a sore throat but the medics wouldn't believe him and treat him for it, and, two, the G's at Ord have been out of order by giving him the same sneering "Gedda-load-a-the-movie-star!" treatment (so says he) that they dished out to Gary Crosby during his stretch in khaki.

RHODA AND ERNIE Borgnine are seeing their barristers so the divorce looks definite, despite steadfast denials from both sides... Jim Blair, Gary Crosby's "Mardi Gras" gal, will play a college Philosophy Major in the picture — who earns her tuition on the side, as a strip-teaser.

June, incidentally, tells me she's perfecting her necking techniques with Gary in the picture by dating his brother Lindsay these fine spring nights... Bob Hope's last gay night on his Soviet hope chest: "Russia's a wonderful place to visit but I wouldn't want to vote there!"

NOW IT CAN BE Told: Nick Adams "dubbed" Jimmy Dean's voice in "Giant," in the scene in which Jimmy got drunk and blasted everything and everybody hell-bent-for - Texas. Warner Bros. paid Nick $300 for the three-day job, necessary because Jimmy's "Method - type" mumbling came out so jumbled on the soundtrack nobody could understand it — and poor Jim was dead and buried when re-dubbing time rolled 'round.

Why was Nick picked for the job? Because he used to visit the set and imitate Jimmy, and director George Stevens remembered his on-the-button takeoff when they were scouting for a substitute... And today Adams is getting $3000 a week from Warner for his starring role in "No Time for Sergeants," with more of the same for Mervyn LeRoy's upcoming "FBI Story."

KIM NOVAK's strange new hobby: She buys tiny white fur rugs at the Farmer's Market and piles them up in a corner of her bedroom... Irene Dunne, a devout Roman Catholic, powdered out on judging this year's Miss Rheingold contest, a post she held last year, because she learned that the winner, if she's married, has to pledge she won't have a baby for a year after she wins the suds tiara.

Starlet chum of Tommy Sands goes for rock 'n' roll in a big way but with a switch: a ROCK set in platinum and a ROLL of greenbacks.

TV TOPICS — Pat Suzuki's sensational TV guests may win her the leading lady spot opposite Jerry Lewis in Paramount's "Geisha Boy" —matter of fact, the choice is up to Jerry and he's been having a tough time deciding between Pat and the Oscar-winning Miyoshi Umeki.

Jerry, incidentally, went Van Johnson's red sex one better by ordering FOUR crimson dinner jackets for his current nightclub stand at the Moulin Rouge, with sock to match.

HAS ANYBODY ELSE in today's clubby little seminar noticed that TV is no longer hiring those brittle - voiced Berry Furness-type dolls to pitch their commercials?

Our summer tourists, already starting to purr into Hollywood, are tearing their hair out over the fact that they have to wait six months in advance for tickets to the Lawrence Welk Show... Line from Jack Lemmon: "Cute? She was so cute, when I took her home in a taxi I could hardly keep my eyes on the meter!"

WALLY COX, HE of the country-bumpkin - type kisser ("Like a walrus," weeps Wally, "that's been dredged up out of the Black Sea, where the poor thing was shipwrecked in 1885"), winged in for some guest shots and a visit with his and Marlon Brando's buddy, Sam Gilman... Add Coxism: "My daughter Alice is now 15 months old and so beautiful it's embarrassing!"

Producer - director Bob Banner's bow-out June 15 after four years of making the production wheels turn — and very slickly — for Dinah Shore's slick Chevy Chase, is the biggest blow the Memphis - Maid - with - the - Marmalade - Voice has suffered since her roaring, soaring rise to the dizzy heights of Emmysville (where she's been perched for the past two seasons).

BANNER, WHO came to TV nine years ago in Chicago and who bagged an Emmy of his own for his 1957 efforts in Dinah's behalf, slips over to CBS-TV in August to serve as "creative producer" for that network.

This Banner is one boy who'll be sorely missed by Missy Shore.

Ben Hecht, here in Hollywood to write his Doctor Pygmalion teleseries (about a plastic surgeon), tells about the time he found about 100 copies of a hopelessly dull technical book, 1,000 pages long, with no index, on a bargain counter in a Chicago bookstore.

Hecht bought all of the books and mailed them to his most egotistical friends (yep, he had 100 of them — at the time!) with this note enclosed in each: "I think you will agree with me that the references to you in this volume, intended to be amusing, are actually libelous." And his buddies, says Ben, read the books, cover to cover, for days on end!

FOURTH GRADE "SPACEMEN" voyaged into outer space at Desert Hot Springs School this week.

Pupils created a model solar system and even a rocket ship, using information and data and the headlines of today's newspapers. Working on their outer space project, Richard Dinneber, left, and Terry Graffam concentrate on their space ship while Monza Stafford and Leverett "Butch" Prosky help Linda Lee Tarbuton paste up a Solar System display.

Grapefruit Ballots Mailed To CV Growers

The United States Department of Agriculture has mailed ballots to all desert grapefruit growers of record, who are voting on proposed amendments to the federal marketing order regulating the handling of grapefruit grown in Arizona, and the Imperial and Coachella valleys in California.

Eligible to vote are all growers, except those who will be represented in the balloting by cooperative marketing associations. Identical amendments to the marketing agreement are being submitted to handlers.

Both the ballot and marketing agreement must be postmarked no later than June 1 and returned to the office of Warren C. Noland, Fruit and Vegetable Division field representative in Los Angeles for the USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Eligible growers who do not receive a ballot by mail may obtain one from Noland's office, 1031 South Broadway, Room 1005, Los Angeles 15.

The principal amendments involve regulations, representation on the Administrative Committee, inspection and establishment of an operating reserve fund. The amendments will be effective if approved by two-thirds of the growers, by number or volume of production, voting in the referendum.

DHS Fourth Grade Pupils 'Rocket' With Solar System

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Fourth grade students at Desert Hot Springs School this week "rocketed" through the Solar System in a special study of outer space.

Directed by their teacher, Mrs. Marjorie Harnage, the fourth graders launched their classroom space project with a study on air and research into data on the Solar System.

NEXT, THE STUDENT "space-men" made models of the planets, placing them on a large map calibrated with their relative sizes and distances.

A model space ship was the next project. The ship, copied from a model rocket, was placed in an appropriate position on the planet project.

Pupils also studied books and read current articles on outer space and delivered oral reports on their studies.

FOURTH GRADERS participating in this classroom junket to outer space were Faith Baker, George Carter, Patti Carroll, Carl Reich, Angela Silvestrino, Bonnie Quick, Linda Jarman, Dan Luxford and Brian Burgstahler.

Others were Susan Wright, Patricia Pagan, Cheryl Lane, Dennis Olvera, Marilyn Penrod, Stephen Rogers, Patricia Fife, Larry Simmons, Ernest Williamson, Rosemary Parra, Phillip Fife, Roger Horton, Inez Clark, John Daniels, Richard Dinneber, Terry Graffam, Monza Stafford, Leverett Prosky and Linda Lee Tarbuton.

Milk Prices to Go Higher on June 1

SACRAMENTO (UP) — Minimum prices for fluid milk, cream and non-fat milk will be increased in the Los Angeles County and San Bernardino - Riverside marketing area, the Bureau of Milk Control announced today.

The price hikes will go into effect June 1.

The increases were blamed on higher processing and delivery costs.

In the San Bernardino-Riverside area, minimum prices in stores will be upped a half-cent to 22 and 43½ cents, while home deliveries will be hiked two cents a quart and four cents a half gallon to 23 and 49½ cents, with discounts offered for deliveries of over two quarts.

Prices of cream and non-fat milk will be raised a half-cent per quart and a half-cent per gallon in all three areas.

Summer Fertilization 'Bad' For Citrus Fruit Quality

Fertilizer applications in the summer after the June drop cannot have any effect on yield for the current year but may adversely affect the quality of citrus fruit, according to Dr. W. E. Jones of the Citrus Experiment Station, who spoke to Coachella Valley fertilizer dealers at Indio this week.

Research work carried on by Dr. Jones with the Valencia in coastal areas has shown that summer or fall fertilizer applications make the skin of the fruit thicker and coarser and cause the fruit to re-green in the following spring and summer when the fruit is ready to pick.

IT HAS ALSO been shown that excessive applications of nitrogen can actually reduce yields in some cases.

Since re-greening of grapefruit is sometimes a problem in the Coachella Valley and coarseness of skin is undesirable, Dr. Jones recommends a soil application of about a pound and a half to two pounds of actual nitrogen per tree for full bearing orchards.

THIS SHOULD BE applied in February to be sure it is available at the peak nitrogen requirement which occurs during bloom in March. It has been found that application at that time is not picked up by the mature fruit remaining on the trees and results in the least adverse effect on fruit quality with the maximum favorable effect on yield.

In response to questions, Dr. Jones stated that the appearance of the tree, especially its color, is the best method for determining the requirement for nitrogen, provided other factors such as salinity or iron deficiency are eliminated as possible causes of the poor color.

Leaf analysis is helpful in determining this although he emphasized it is not possible to give positive levels for any nutrient.

A brook trout may lay as many as 4,000 eggs in a single "reed" or nest scooped in a stream bottom, the National Geographic Magazine says. She covers the eggs with gravel to protect them against predators and floods.

based on the leaf content. Soil analysis is even less exact and is useful mainly to avoid excessive applications of nitrogen if there is already plenty in the soil. Where soil nitrates are low the tree may still frequently have a plentiful supply.

Hal Kapp Honored at PD Chamber Installation

PALM DESERT — "This Is Your Life" came to Palm Desert this week, but the likes of this resort version of the biographical program will never be viewed on television.

As a salute to Hal Kapp, retiring president of the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce, chamber members staged a satire of Kapp's life at the organization's annual dinner meeting at Shadow Mountain Club.

The play, written by Lou Kuehner, featured Jim Griffin as Kapp and Betty Crockett as his wife. A song, "Our Pal Hal," also written by Kuehner, was sung by Dick Kite.

A "fashion show" climaxed the program. The show featured Kapp's wardrobe, modeled by Kite, John Noyes, Griffin, Ralph Phillips and Stew Trumble. The show was staged by Jean Hanoušek.

Kapp and his successor, Phil Franklin, were presented coats as gifts from the community residents and Franklin received a congratulatory telegram from Honorary Mayor Bing Crosby.

County Cancer Society Tells Need for $5,000 More

The Riverside County Branch of the American Cancer Society needs in the neighborhood of $5,000 to meet its 1957-58 fund raising goal, it was announced today by Joseph S. Long, County Crusade chairman.

Thanking residents of Palm Springs for their generous support of the Society's April Cancer Crusade, Joseph S. Long revealed that the additional funds must be raised between now and Aug. 31.

THE SOCIETY traditionally receives many memorial contributions during the month of May, especially around Memorial Day, which are expected to help swell the cancer fighting fund, he said. All contributions are used to support year-around programs of research, education, and service to cancer patients, Long said. Forty per cent of every gift remains in this community for use in local programs of cancer control.

"EACH YEAR MORE progress is being made against cancer," Long declared. "Doctors now are saving the life of one cancer patient in every three, as against one in four only two or three years ago. This achievement is a triumph of productive cancer research and programs of public and professional education, but the real victory will not come until cancer is conquered completely."

He urged local residents who have not yet sent in their contributions to the American Cancer

New National Sales Record Believed Set

SALTON CITY — The chalking up of what is believed to be a new national record for total individual land sales for a seven day period was established at Salton City when over $4,500,000 in property sales was reported by the M. Penn Phillips Company, developers of the area.

10,000 persons visited the new 19,600 acre development located along a six mile shoreline of Salton Sea, company spokesmen estimated, during opening week.

SALTON CITY IS the first major resort community to be developed at the Salton Sea, sportsman headquarters for boating, water skiing and other aquatic activities.

A multi-million dollar recreational center is programmed for the area by the Phillips Company, including yacht harbors, hotel, marina, airports, community center and golf course.

The Phillips Company, developers of Hesperia and other recreational areas, is also believed to have set another record at the Salton City development with the filing of 6,300 lots of record for the opening week.

WHITINGHAM, Vt. — (UP) — Town meeting members balloted eight times before they found a man brave enough to accept the job of road commissioner during the state's worst winter in 24 years. Seven men were successively elected but declined. Farmer Leon C. Carpenter finally accepted, then learned that two of the town's three plows had broken down and one has had its rear end replaced four times.

The government's General Service Administration estimated that these services last year amounted to $386,000 which is not a great sum when posed against the multi-billion dollar spending which appears now to have been saddled on the taxpayers until the end of time.

Miss Knight explained that anyone who would fraudulently apply for a passport would not hesitate to produce a phony witness, so why clutter the counters and corridors of passport issuing agencies with two persons for each passport involved.

MISS KNIGHT'S methods have reduced from many weeks to 4½ days the time necessary to issue a passport.

Of personal checks, she contended that if the government accepts them for income tax payments it also should be willing to take them in payment for a passport fee.

Miss Knight's reforms and modernization of the Passport Office make a lot of sense. A taxpayer might think it a good idea to expose other agencies of government to Miss Knight, especially any in which the productivity per employee has diminished instead of increased.

As predicted . . . the Desert Air luau Saturday night was another record breaker . . . People were turned away at the gate . . . but not before some 1400 crowded into the luau grounds . . . As we entered fresh flower leis were hung around our shoulders . . . and over at one side we could see the smoke rising and hear the chanting as the food was being taken out of the imu, island style . . . It was completely ringed with spectators . . . Luau food was served cafeteria style . . . with hundreds of people in the line up . . .

As they did last year . . . a big area had been stockaded with palm fronds sheltering the place where the tables were set up . . . All the central portion was given over to low tables where guests were seated island-fashion on the mats . . . but there were regular sized tables and chairs around the outer fringes . . . Those in left field were about 1/4 a mile from the stage . . . A bright-colored mural of an Hawaiian scene backed the stage . . . where the entertainment took place . . . Hilo Hattie was delightful as usual . . . and George Kainapau's wonderful voice is thrilling out under the stars . . . The number and beauty of the dancing girls . . . and the excitement of the spectacular fire and sword dances added to the evening's entertainment . . . and the dance floor was crowded all evening . . .

I finally made it out to the new Eldorado Country Club Friday night . . . where Velma and Johnny Dawson were hosting Klutter Klub members at cocktails and steak dinner . . . Didn't get out onto the course . . . but could see it in the distance . . . with lots of palm trees and seven artificial lakes . . . The surrounding mountains make it a beautiful setting . . .

The clubhouse isn't built yet . . . but the plans are drawn and they hope to start construction in August . . . There are 29 cottages . . . some facing onto the pool area . . . and some facing onto the fairways . . . Among the cottage owners are the Dawsons . . . Justin Dart of Rexall Drug . . . Clarence Brown . . . Marriner Eccles . . . the George Temples . . . Sid Richardson . . . Lee Phillips of Phillips 66 gasoline . . .

Anyone who knows Velma Dawson . . . or has been inside their delightful house at Thunderbird . . . which they sold last year . . . will expect their new house to be the ultimate . . . and it is . . . The cottages are simpler than modern . . . with the idea that they will never be outmoded . . . There's still lots of glass . . . and an outdoor-indoor feeling . . . The Dawson house has brilliant orange and yellow highlights throughout . . . with the colors picked up in the original paintings . . . There are murals and lots of those fake paintings . . . that extend a shutter onto a wall . . .

HANK GOGERTY loves a luau and everyone who attends the Desert Air (he owns the place) luau loves to watch Hank do his "Cock-Eyed Mayor" routine. (Desert Sun Photo).

Kline, Bill Cranston, Ray McGuire, Newt Tarble, Lewis Mitchell . . . Ed Collin, Dudley Dunkle, Fred Clark, Win Fuller, Charles Schreiber . . . Jim Lewis, Bill Valentine, Joe Hall, Tex Middleton, William Echelberger, Theron Hooker . . . and their wives . . . around 50 altogether . . .

Among Palm Springs who were guests last night . . . were Paul and Trudy Reynolds, the S. P. Manasses, Dr. and Mrs. John Costello . . . A steak dinner was served by Jack Boyer's chuckwagon . . . with tables set up under the pavillion poolside . . . and dancing was there too after dinner to the music of a three-piece combo . . .

Did you realize how tiny a hummingbird is? . . . I'm sure you don't really unless you have seen a hummingbird's nest . . . with a baby hummingbird . . . about the size of a bee . . . emerging from the marble-sized egg . . . There's such a nest . . . and I saw the baby bird in it Friday as I was leaving the luncheon at Lillian McClure's home . . . The nest was perched in the thorny branch of a rose tree in the McClures' front garden . . .

Sidelights of the Knowland girls' visit: Estelle will be 21 just in time to cast her first vote for her Dad . . . Dorothy Knowland's table partner story . . . One of her youngsters had measles so she was delayed in leaving home and flew to join the bus tour later . . . There was a little old lady on the same plane sitting next to her . . . and Dorothy helped her fasten her seat belt and calmed her nervous fears . . . When the two got around to exchanging names . . . the little old lady was "Mrs. Pat Brown" . . . mother of Knowland's opponent . . . Incidentally, Dorothy is the musical member of the trio . . . and her absence got the blame for the off-tune fiasco on television . . . Zaddie Bunker was at the luncheon . . . She didn't get to Honolulu as she planned . . . because of minor surgery . . . but may go later this summer . . .

Painters and Sculptors Guild Ends Meetings

The Painters & Sculptors Guild of the Desert Art Center held their last party of the season at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Yerkes at Araby Rocky Point. Most of the evening was spent in sitting around the pool and admiring the view, which was acclaimed unsurpassed in Palm Springs. The Village with the mountains as a background with the moonlight and stars seemed to bring discussion of finer art and plans for future expression in their work.

Twenty members were present and sympathy expressed for those who had left for the summer, missing one of the most beautiful evenings in the month of May. Dr. Franz Alexander and Arthur Burkland were special guests of the evening.

How to Freeze Fresh Vegetables

FARGO, N. D. — The trick in freezing asparagus and other vegetables for winter meals is to make sure the vegetables are as free of water as possible.

Ruth Dawson, a nutritionist for North Dakota State College Extension Service, said vegetables such as asparagus must be pre-cooked and then placed in cold water. When cool, they must be drained well on absorbent paper or towels to remove the water.

Wet vegetables cause ice crystals to form during freezing, producing an inferior product.

Hoboes Convene At Carlises

A mouth-gaping crescent moon looked down on a strange sight Saturday night as the hoboes gathered at the James Carlisle home on El Alameda, and guests slunk along back streets in amazing costumes.

It was a "Hobo Convention" party, complete with "reports" of the findings and investigation committee, who were concerned with the depredations of the "chicken stealing parson, who shall be nameless. Dinner was served at a long table, marked off in sections for different states, and really all-out decorated with flowers stuck into old tin cans. Hoboes dined royally on baked ham, baked beans, scalloped potatoes, salads and chocolate ice cream roll.

First prize for the best men's costume went to Foster Simonsen who wore gunny sacks, fastened together with nails, an old beat-up hat, burlap wrapped around his feet, and carried his red-kerchief bundle on a stick over his shoulder. Completing the illusion, he took a can of sterno and a can of beans out of the bundle, and heated and ate his own dinner.

Mrs. M. L. Marki won first prize for the women in a costume that really shook up the beholders. Her costume was of feed sacks, sewed up the sides and tied together at the shoulders, and fringed ragged at the bottom, and her hair streamed unnaturally, something like Harpo Marx's.

Guests included Messrs. and Mrs. John Williams, Paul Burkholder, George Chandler, Walter Fifield, David Carlin, Daniel Newton, Fay Brainerd, Harry Howell, Donald Macpherson, Daniel MacDavid, Sigfried Pearson, Ross Bleming, George Clark, Paul Leathers, Robert Ritchie, Frank Little, Gordon Nicholson, Doak Davis, Charles Lyngaard, Harry Yesley, Foster Simonsen, Harry Samuelson, Willis Dell, Harry Pitman, George Davies, Dr. and Mrs. James Blackstone Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Daniel McCauley, Mrs. M. L. Marti, Harriet Tracy, Isaac Noyes, David King, Vera Jones, Harry Graham of Ontario, sister of the hostess, and Miss Jan King, who lives across the street.

Luncheon Is Birthday Surprise

Arranged as a surprise for Mrs. John Costello, whose birthday was the following day, was the luncheon party Friday afternoon hosted by Mrs. John McClure at her Mesquite home.

The surprised guest of honor received many birthday gifts planned for her to pack into her luggage next fall when she and her husband Dr. Costello go abroad, as they do each year.

Guests were seated at two tables. One was in the livingroom, looking out onto the garden where the pool sparkled in the sunlight and the desert willow tree was in bloom; and one in the diningroom with its distinctive mural.

The big glass-topped table was centered with a crystal tree, with a spray of purple orchids blossoming out of it. The orchids were given by Mr. McClure in their hothouse in town, and there were enough of them that each guest received one to wear. There were favors, too, of jeweled pens.

The luncheon plate held a chicken and dressing combination, asparagus, and a pink-pinked pear half, with green leaves.

Guests included: Mmes. George Wheeler, Dolph Obergel, Ben Gale (just back from Dallas, where she was called by the death of an aunt), W. B. Malouf, John F. Luccarelli, S. P. Manasse, B. J. Sanchez, Charles Driver, Ed Fallgren, Franklyn B. MacCarthy, Bill Crawford.

Photographer Going Abroad For Summer

Conrad Hug, El Mirador's photographer, is going abroad again this summer, sailing from New York on June 14 aboard the French liner Flanders. He will take his Rolleiflex camera with him and buy some new ones in Europe and will, of course, take lots of pictures, including some from Bavaria, where he will be collecting data to use for El Mirador's Bavarian Beer Festival next year.

Hug is also a sports car enthusiast and may bring home a new Mercedes Benz.

He will visit the World's Fair at Brussels, Southern France, Italy, and the music festivals at Salzburg and Innsbruck, returning home in September in time for El Mirador's October opening. Arranged in advance are rendezvous with El Mirador chef Gerhard Knaak and his wife in Berchtesgaden and with Villagers Dr. and Mrs. Sam Salinger in Terracina, Italy.

Finchy P-TA Has Election Tomorrow Night

Katherine Finchy P-TA group will meet Wednesday evening at 8 p. m. in the multi-purpose room of the school to hold election of officers for the coming year, it was announced by president Rose Marie Patzner.

Howard Haddock, superintendent of the city recreation department, will give a talk on recreation available in the Village during the summer.

All interested parties are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Knowland Daughters Are Honored

The Knowland daughters Mrs. Harold Jewett Jr. and Mrs. Robert V. McKeen and daughter-in-law Mrs. Joseph W. Knowland enjoy a brief respite from their Knowland-for-Governor campaign tour when they spent the weekend in Palm Springs.

Their bus tour up and down the state, which has put them on television and in national magazines, is a hard-working campaign that takes them up and down the streets shaking hands with strangers and asking them to "vote for Daddy." In Palm Springs it was different, and they found themselves royally entertained at a party given for them by Mrs. Franklyn B. MacCarthy, member of the executive committee of the Knowland-for-Governor campaign, both in Los Angeles and in Riverside County. Honored with them was their aunt, Mrs. Hubert Caldwell, who is a sister of the Senator's wife.

Mrs. MacCarthy had invited her guests to meet first at her home on San Lorenzo Road, and here around 60 women met the visitors and were served champagne punch.

Luncheon was served in the Starlite Room at Chi Chi, where the small tables had been cleared away and a big U-shaped table set up, with a smaller table centered in the "U," where the hostesses were seated. The tables were covered with deep blue cloths, and bouquets were in the California colors of blue and gold.

Guests were seated first and the guests of honor entered to the strains of "California, Here I Come."

After graciously welcoming her guests, the hostess turned the microphone over to Gladys O'Donnell, coordinator of the women's campaign for Knowland, who acted as mistress of ceremonies. Among the distinguished guests introduced were: Mrs. Adrian Cameron, Mrs. Edward Shattuck (her husband heads the state campaign for Knowland), Mrs. Frank Bogert, Mrs. Tustin McManus (who presented a check for $200), Mrs. Frank Bennett, Mrs. Zaddie Barker, Mrs. Fred Holliday, Mrs. John McClure, Mrs. Helen Grubb, Mrs. Jerry Case, Mrs. Hildred Ferrall of Anaheim, Mrs. Dinsmore of Desert Hot Springs, and others.

Highlighting the affair was a delightful talk by the famous actress Zasu Pitts, and campaign parody songs by the "three Knowland girls." The girls have been traveling up and down the state in their Greyhound bus which carries "Sacramento" as its destination and is bannered "Rollin' with Knowland," since the first of May and will wind up the month in the Los Angeles area, taking their message "to the people."

In a brief talk, Mrs. Jewett, the former Emelyn Knowland, called Palm Springs a "wonderful highlight" of the 5000-mile tour. Young Mrs. Knowland, a native of Maryland, played the piano as he three girls sang "Sacramento Here We Come," "Vote for Bill," and the amusing "We've Got Helen for a Mommy." Felix Garcia accompanied them on his guitar.

Mrs. MacCarthy was assisted in her hostess duties by Mmes. John McClure, Edward Shattuck, Dolph Obergel, Harold Cooper, William Malouf, George Wheeler, Herbert Burns, Fred Holliday, Ward Risvold, Joe Hale, William Crawford, and her daughter Lorraine MacCarthy Hogan.

SENATOR KNOWLAND'S daughter and daughter-in-law and Mrs. Knowland's sister Mrs. Hubert Caldwell were honored guests at a luncheon for around 60 women given at the Chi Chi Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Franklyn B. MacCarthy. Seated are the three Knowland girls, from left, Mrs. Joseph Knowland, Mrs. Harold Jewett Jr. and Mrs. Robert V. McKeen. TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI) — John Sholto Douglas, the eighth Marquis of Queensberry, must be reeling in his spectral ringside seat today as result of a one-two punch tossed by Fritz Zivic and Willie (the Beard) Gilzenberg.

The Marquis was the fight buff who helped rewrite the rules of the ring back in 1867. Before that time, prize fighters employed tactics which made alley fighting seem like a Newport tea.

The Marquis helped make it a "gentlemanly sport."

THE MARQUIS sustained his first rabbit punch last week when Zivic, deploring the fact that he was recognized as "only the second dirtiest fighter of all time, used another ghost to pen a declaration that the gloved gladiator of today has to fight far outside the rules to be a winner.

The coup de grace now is administered by Willie the Beard, so known because of a perpetual six-o'clock shadow, nobody being able to get so unshaven by five. Willie supports Zivic's contention in a letter of advice to Vince Martinez, who engages Virgil Atkins at St. Louis next week for the vacant welterweight championship.

"What Zivic said is absolutely the truth," the Beard alleges in a letter which he thoughtfully made public. "So don't forget there hasn't been a disqualification in a championship fight since Jack Sharkey lost to Max Schmeling on a foul in 1930.

WILLIE THE BEARD, almost as much as Zivic, should qualify as an expert in the matter of boxing outside the boundary lines. Gilzenberg once directed the fist destiny of Two-ton Tony Galento and it may be said without fear of libel, the man who was built like a barrel cared little for the niceties of life in or out of the ring.

Another inhabitant of the Gilzenberg stable was a red-haired brother of a boy named Freddie (Red) Cochrane.

Thus it comes as no surprise when Gilzenberg informs Martinez that Cochrane won the same welterweight championship from, of all people, Zivic, in a "strictly planned and calculated dirty fight."

"One of Zivic's favorite foul tricks was to circle an opponent's neck with his left arm, pull him in close and hit him low with a right uppercut," Gilzenberg relates. "Our strategy was to bump heads with Fritz whenever he tried that trick."

"IN ROUND TWO, that night in 1941 at a Newark ball park, their heads came together like a couple to billiard balls," Willie adds. "You could hear it out in left field. Fritz, proud of his hard head, began to lose the fight right then. But in the fourth round we wrapped it up. I sent Cochrane out with instructions to hit Zivic deliberately below the belt."

"I'll never forget Zivic—admittedly the dirtiest fighter of his era—complaining to the referee," Willie the Beard chuckles over his electric typewriter.

It was "strategy," relates Gilzenberg, which won the title for Cochrane. And he suggests that Martinez take the lesson to heart.

The Marquis must be hanging on those astral ropes.

Indian Netters Play San Marino Today

Win Will Put Tribe In Finals

History is still repeating itself for Coach Seamus Nunan's Palm Springs High School Boys Tennis team.

Last year they won the Riverside County League championship and met Coronado High in the finals of the California Interscholastic Small Schools state playoffs. They won that match.

THIS YEAR they again won the RCL title and met Coronado High in the quarter finals—winning again.

Then last year they met San Marino high in the semi-finals. And that's where Coach Nunan hopes history will stop stuttering. For San Marino defeated the Tribe netters.

That match was played at San Marino.

Today's matches with San Marino are being played here, starting at 2 p.m. today.

Coach Nunan hopes to reverse last year's decision.

He will start the same team which last Friday defeated Coronado—Frank Ripley, Eric Williams, Denny Hammond and Roger Burton in the singles and the teams of Fred Grimm and Joe Henderson and Richard Reskes and Dick McFarland in the doubles.

If the Indians win in today's semi-finals they will enter the state finals Thursday against an as yet undetermined opponent with the site to be selected later.

Merchants Lose Game by Default To Camp Irwin

After playing one of their best games of the season and against one of their strongest foes so far, Palm Springs Merchants were declared losers by default against the Camp Irwin team, Saturday night at the Polo Grounds.

The Merchants were leading 1 to 0 in the bottom of the seventh when the blow-up came. In an argument over a disputed play, Manager John Marinco called his team off the field and the officials awarded the game to the visitors, 9-0.

Max Milton for the Merchants had blanked Camp Irwin on five hits for seven innings. The Merchants had touched Hawkins of the visitors for only four but had turned two of them into a run.

The score, when the game was called, was:

Camp Irwin	9	0	5	1
Palm Springs	0	5	1	2

Hawkins and Chambers; Milton and Lewis.

Bold Ruler Goes In Carter 'Cap With 135 Impost

NEW YORK (UPI)—Trainer Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons said "OK, we'll go."

That simple declaration by the 81-year-old trainer means Bold Ruler, the 1937 "Horse of the Year," definitely will start in the $50,000-added Carter handicap at Belmont Park Friday, despite a staggering 135 pound assignment.

"The colt is fit and ready to run," Mr. Fitz said. "He's a New York horse and we'd like to see him win here. And if he gets beat, it might as well be here."

Gallant Man, who spent most of the 1957 season chasing Bold Ruler, also will run in the seven furlong dash, but he'll carry only 128 pounds, somewhat of a concession, since the Ralph Lowe colt ran against Bold Ruler at level weights six straight times last year.

"He's been working well," trainer Johnny Nerud said of Gallant Man. "We'll tackle him, Bold Ruler, on Friday and see what happens."

Eddie Aracaro will ride Bold Ruler, while Willie Shoemaker will fly in from California to handle Gallant Man.

Van Won't Say If He'll Play for Eagle Gridders

PORTLAND (UPI)—"Right now my answer is yes and no," —that was the reaction of Norm Van Brocklin when asked if he intended to play football for the pro Philadelphia Eagles.

The Eagles acquired the star quarterback in a trade with the Los Angeles Rams.

"I've played football more than half my life now," Van Brocklin said Monday night. "It's been good to me. I'm going to have a family conference—talk it over with my wife."

Van Brocklin is northwest manager for a California pipe-coating company. He set up the firm's Portland office two years ago.

"If I play again, I must make up my mind to stay in football, turning to coaching when I'm through playing. The Eagles bought me to play. They're hunting for a quarterback," he said.

Offer Indy Drivers Chance at Riverside

RIVERSIDE (UPI)—Sponsors of three 500-mile races at Riverside International Raceway Friday, Saturday and Sunday today offered qualifying shots to cars that failed to make the grade at Indianapolis.

An offer to pay air freight for cars unable to qualify for the Indianapolis Memorial Day classic was made Monday by Galaro Slonaker, president of the group sponsoring the local races.

VALUE CHAVEZ RAVINE SITE AT $18 MILLION

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Value of a Chavez Ravine site where the Los Angeles Dodgers hope to build a 50,000-seat stadium was placed at 18 million dollars today by an industrial real estate firm.

The estimate, made by W. H. Daum, president of a realty firm, was offered Monday by Councilman Karl Rundberg, once a backer of the city-Dodger pact to trade Wrigley Field for a 300-acre stadium site.

Now, however, Rundberg opposes the deal.

The councilman interrupted City Council proceedings over the acceptance of a $2,250,000 evaluation for Wrigley Field with a letter from Daum containing the estimate.

Junior Police, Little League leaders, haven't lost a game so far—but they haven't won them all.

Monday night, in a thriller, Cameron Stars, in second place, fought them to a standstill, the game being called by the time limit at the end of the regulation six innings with the score tied at 9-all.

SHARP FIELDING and the old long ball kept the lead changing hands throughout. The Police teed off with a pair in the first, were headed by the Stars 3-2 in the bottom of the same round, went behind 2-4 in the second and then took the lead 6-4 in the fifth.

The Stars went for five in their half but the Police came back with three to knot it at 9 each in the sixth.

HOME RUNS abounded with Ezel James of the Police getting two and a grand slam homer by Kerry Schwab and another round-tripper by Robert Payne pacing the Stars.

In the second game the Boys' Club broke into the win column at the expense of the Hathaway-Buick Braves, 17-2.

They went ahead in the first and kept adding runs in all but the sixth.

DAVID STARICK, Dick Burnett and Dennis Strebe hit home runs for the winners. Strebe had a pair. Mark Killain had a perfect night for the Boys Club, hitting four for four.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Archie Moore, fighting mainly as if he had one hand tied behind him, used punishing left jabs Monday night to hack out a dull 10-round decision over bloody Charlie Nokus before a dissatisfied crowd of about 3,500.

Moore, who used Norkus as a sparring partner for about half the time and punching bag for the other, weighed 196 to the New Yorker's 193. Archie's weight was 21 pounds over the limit of the light heavyweight class which he rules.

U. S. Surgeon General Says 46 Million Making Foolish Bet

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP)—There are 46 million people in America who are making what Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney regards as a very foolish bet.

They are betting that they won't catch polio. Burney admits that the mathematical odds are in their favor. Paralytic polio has been reduced by almost 85 per cent during the past two years, thanks to Salk vaccine.

BUT POLIO HAS not been eliminated as a menace to health.

"In 1957, almost 2,000 children and young adults were crippled," Burney said. "Many of them will never walk again."

"No one can predict what the 1958 polio toll will be. But we do know that about 46 million susceptible persons have not started their course of three injections of vaccine."

"THESE PEOPLE are needlessly risking disability and even death."

The Public Health Service, which Burney heads, regards everyone under the age of 40 as a "susceptible person" who needs vaccine protection against polio. Of the 111 million Americans in this age group, 35 million have been fully vaccinated, and 30 million others have started the three-shot series.

Burney said it is particularly important that all youngsters of pre-school age be inoculated as soon as possible.

ANALYSIS OF 1957 cases shows that polio attacks children under five with much greater frequency than any other age group.

The highest "attack-rate"—5.7 cases per 100,000 population—was found among one-year-olds. The next highest rate, 5.5, was among two-year-olds.

Dog Blamed
NORWALK, Conn. (UP)—Miss Ida Saunders, 25, of Lanexa, Va., blamed her dog for making her car roll over. She said the dog jumped onto her lap and she lost control of the vehicle which overturned. Miss Saunders and the dog escaped injury.

Fruit Exchange Holds Meeting At Desert Air

California Fruit Exchange of Sacramento held its annual Spring Director's meeting at Desert Air Hotel, with directors attending from throughout California, along with the staff members of the Sacramento headquarters office.

The Exchange is rated one of the world's largest agricultural cooperative marketing organizations, with world-wide distribution of California's fresh deciduous fruits and table grapes. It was originated in 1901.

THE EXCHANGE selected the Coachella Valley for this meeting so that all directors would become familiar with the business originating from here.

Local grower members are the Coachella Valley Grape Growers Association, and the Mezu Grape Growers Association.

KENNETH LICHTY of the Valley is a director of the Exchange. Among area residents invited to a dinner of the group, held at Desert Air, were John Dawson, Jimmy Hines, Norman Waters, and Paul Kersten.

Judges Are Being Selected To Choose the First 'JIM'

Time is drawing near for the selection of the leading Junior Independent Merchant from the more than 50 Desert Sun Carrier Boys, who will win for himself and his parents an all-expense paid vacation to Santa Catalina Island.

Judges are currently being chosen and the boys' qualifications are being tabulated to help the judges arrive at a decision.

THE BOYS WILL BE judged on many aspects of being a good student at school, as well as a good representative of the Daily Desert Sun.

The reward will be a trip to beautiful Santa Catalina Island, where they will spend the nights of June 21 and 22 at the Hermosa Hotel. The boy will take his parents to the islands most exclusive restaurants for dinner and lunch, and will enjoy such outings as the flying fish ride, the glass bottom boat, a horseback ride in the foothills overlooking Avalon Bay, and sightseeing trips.

THIS IS THE FIRST of what will become an annual contest for local Desert Sun Carriers.

Local carrier boys play an important part in the community and do a big job in preparing their future. As Junior Independent Merchants they learn the budgeting of their time, the handling of money, and this particularly improves a young man's ability to present himself to the public.

EACH YEAR THE Daily Desert Sun is expanding its carrier forces, but a long list of young men is on file, far more than could ever be used, just waiting for the opportunity to become a carrier boy.

The Junior Merchant is not only interested in the money with which he can buy clothes, open a savings account for college, or keep that spending money in his pocket, but The Sun Carrier also has many opportunities to take trips and outings that otherwise may never be enjoyed.

In just the first few years Desert Sun Carriers have been to professional game in Los Angeles, have gone twice to Disneyland, attended last years Los Angeles County Fair, have had Christmas parties, and get free theater and circus tickets, as well as tickets to last years Police Show.

County Leads In Savings Bonds Sales for 1958

Riverside County today was listed among top ranking counties of Southern California in growth of sales of United States Savings Bonds, and local volunteers were commended by the Treasury Department.

Riverside County made a 15.6 per cent gain in sales of E and H bonds for the months of January through April, as compared with the Southern California average gain of 8.3 per cent over the same period of last year.

Dollar volume sales for the period were $1,070,539, as compared to $926,213 for the same period of 1957. April, 1958 sales were $247,790.

County Savings Bonds Chairman is J. S. Bordwell, and community chairmen are: Clifford Dean, Banning; C. L. James, Beaumont; M. C. Wells, Blythe; Robert Snedecor, Corona; F. Alvan Sohn, Elsinore; Robert E. Baumer, Hemet; Robert H. Poole, Idyllwild; Thomas J. Mullan, Indio; Thomas H. Holland, Palm Springs; George P. Fraley, Perris; George V. Clayton, Riverside; and Jack Franklin, San Jacinto.

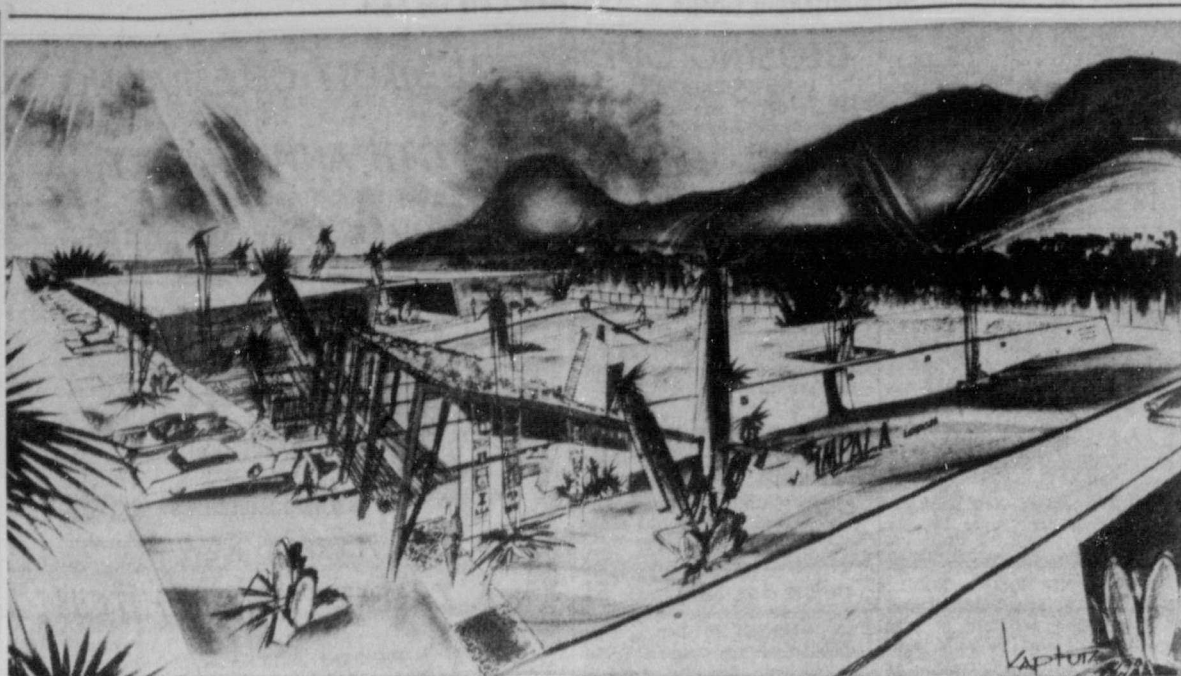

Sheriff's Budget Replenished by County Board

An amount totalling $33,755.37 was provided the sheriff by the Board of Supervisors this week to run his department for the balance of this fiscal year (to July 1) by the juggling of funds, largely within his own budget.

An amount of $16,798.37 in the salary account of the health department, and $1,000 from the county's unappropriated reserve fund was added to the $15,957 transferred from other accounts within the sheriff's budget.

The total is to be used as follows: $10,000 for auto expense, $8,755.37 for jail salaries, $8,000 for board of prisoners, $3,000 for dance guards, $2,000 for telephone and telegraph, and $2,000 for travel costs.

The allocations were recommended by Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen.

WASHINGTON — The world's most famous airliner refuses to retire.

That would be the DC3. The 25-year-old transport plane is known as the C47 to the Air Force, the Dakota to the British, R4D to the Navy — and "the best plane ever built" to thousands of pilots.

RECENTLY THE International Air Transport Assn. found that 694 DC3's are still being used in scheduled passenger service throughout the world, more than any other single type. For a plane designed a quarter century ago, that is the most remarkable record in aviation history.

The Douglas Aircraft Co. began building the DC3 in 1933. It turned out nearly 12,000 and half of them are still flying. About 250 are used by 22 scheduled airlines in the United States.

DOUGLAS ESTIMATES that the DC3 has carried nearly 500 million passengers in the past 25 years.

The DC3 always has been a "pilot's plane." Easy to handle, untemperamental, responsive as a baby carriage and almost completely forgiving of mistakes made in the cockpit. Its one fault: Leaks in the cockpit windshields during rain, which led one pilot to radio "light rain outside, heavy rain inside."

IT IS ONE OF the strongest planes ever built.

A year ago, a frontier airlines DC3 ripped 12 feet from its left wing when it hit a mountain. The pilot turned around and flew 40 miles back to an airport.

The DC3 was designed to carry 21 passengers and a crew of three. Later models carried 26 passengers.

In World War II, a DC3, operated by a Chinese airline took off with 74 passengers aboard.

OTHER DC3's have been known to carry 60 persons. Domestic airlines limit the DC3 to a gross take-off weight of a little more than 25,000 pounds. During the war, the Air Transport Command regularly flew its DC3's with a gross weight of 31,000 pounds and they have been known to fly safely with 35,000.

THE DC3 WAS a Godsend to the nation's struggling airlines in the early 30's. One airline president called it "the first plane that could make money just hauling passengers."

Five years after it was introduced by American Airlines and TWA, the DC3 comprised 90 per cent of America's commercial air fleet.

No pilot was surprised when the plane also became an aerial workhorse in World War II. DC3's flew millions of tons of wartime cargo, served as airborne ambulances, flew paratroopers into combat and became a welcome sight at allied airfields all over the world.

New Desert Hills Trailer Park Owner Announces Plans

Jack Kosbie, new owner of The Desert Hills Trailer Park, will take over actual operation later this summer, it was reported today by Bill Colven of the Billy Wright Real Estate Office, who handled the transaction between buyer and seller.

Kosbie and his wife will assume direct management of the park, and Colven said that they are looking forward, "with keen anticipation," to living in the desert.

THE PARK WAS formerly owned by Desert Hills, Inc., a corporation of 10 members, headed by Jack Herbert, president, and including park manager Henry McKelvey. It has been listed for $165,000 by Virgil Love of the Billy Wright office.

The park was started two years ago on a hillside commanding a wide view of the valley, on the south side of Highway 111, in the Transview section. Today it comprises 110 modern spaces located on approximately 15 acres, with room for an additional 40 spaces, and storage area for extra trailers.

Facilities include a large heated and filtered pool, shuffleboard courts, recreation room.

THERE NOW ARE available 30 spaces for 10-wide trailers, and Kosbie plans to develop the remaining land for additional 10-wides.

While a member of California legislature, supported legislation which assured every worker the right to join a union of his choice. This outlawed the so-called "Yellow Dog Contract," and prohibited management from discriminating against hiring of union members.

Today Bill Knowland is a Candidate for Governor of California

- He says to you:
1. The right of every American worker to belong to a union must continue to be effectively protected by law.
 2. No American should be compelled to belong to a union to earn a living. Voluntary unionism will make unions responsible to their members and to the public.
 3. Union members should enjoy the protection of a Workers' Bill of Rights which includes election of officers by guaranteed secret ballot and provision for recall of officers by secret ballot.
